AND INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION

1. The control markings and procedures set forth below shall be utilized by an originating agency to restrict the internal dissemination and use of intelligence and intelligence information by a receiving agency, and to permit the dissemination of such information outside of the receiving agency. Such restrictive or permissive action shall be consonant with the protection of intelligence, intelligence information, and of intelligence sources and methods involved.

2. Whenever an originating department or agency deems it necessary to provide special controls for intelligence or intelligence information, either by virtue of the substance of the information itself or to provide additional protection of intelligence sources and methods, the appropriate control marking(s) set forth below shall be placed upon the document. Any document disseminated or used within or outside the intelligence community and bearing any of the control markings set forth in this Directive shall be controlled carefully by all recipients in strict conformity with the requirements of this Directive.

3. Intelligence Information

(2) The information, however, must be paraphrased and used in the text in a manner which effectively conceals the originating agency, the source, the place and date acquired and the manner of acquisition; in addition, if disclosed to a foreign government, no reference shall be made to documents upon which the finished intelligence is based.

information, if any, and identification of source documents are reproduced with the information. Intelligence information so used shall not be released to foreign governments without the permission of the agency originating the information.

4. Under the conditions of paragraph 3 a (2) of this Directive, NSA has the advance consent of the intelligence components of USIB to use in its product, as deemed necessary, classified intelligence information not bearing any control markings, except certain CIA designated documents, and include it in release to foreign governments.

5. The following markings shall be used for the control of intelligence and intelligence information within the U.S. Government and to foreign nationals:

a. DISSEMINATION WITHIN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

(1) WARNING NOTICE -- SENSITIVE SOURCES AND METHODS INVOLVED

This marking shall be employed in the absence of any other suitable marking to inform all recipients that the information is sensitive and requires special controls and a severely limited distribution. For the purpose of this marking, such intelligence is identified as that classified intelligence, the unauthorized disclosure of which could lead to counteraction (a) jeopardizing the continued productivity of intelligence sources or methods which provide intelligence vital to the national security or (b) offsetting the value of intelligence vital to the national security.

Document: The dissemination of the document shall be severely limited to those who have a clear need-to-know.

This marking may also be applied for dissemination control purposes to assist in identifying that intelligence material which by category or classification is by USIB-approved policy and other directives prohibited from dissemination to contractors.

Document: The dissemination of the document shall be limited to civilian employees and active duty military personnel within the intelligence components of the USIB member agencies, and to those senior officials of the member agencies who must act upon the information. However, unless specifically controlled in accordance with paragraph 8 hereof the document may be released to those components of the departments and agencies of the U.S. Government directly participating in the production of National Intelligence. (A) BACKGROUND USE ONLY

This marking shall be employed to preclude the inclusion of the information in any other document or publication. This marking is intended solely to control the use of the information.

Document: This marking does not affect the dissemination of the document.

Use : The information is not to be included in any other document or publication.

b. RELEASE TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS *

The policy and procedures for the release of classified defense information to foreign governments are established by the Presidential Directive of 23 September 1958, "Basic Policy Governing the Release of Classified Defense Information to Foreign Governments," as revised 23 April 1960.

(1) Classified Intelligence Documents Not Bearing Control Markings

Document: Classified intelligence documents even though they bear no control markings shall not be released to foreign governments without the prior permission of the originating agency.

Use : Information contained in classified intelligence documents not bearing any control markings may be used in classified finished intelligence and released to foreign governments in accordance with paragraph 3 a of this Directive.

(2) When the originating agency predetermines that intelligence information must not be released in any form to foreign governments, the following marking shall be employed:

NO FOREIGN DISSEM

Document: The document must not be released to foreign governments.

* No release of a classified intelligence document, whether or not bearing a control marking, shall be made to U.S. employed, utilized or integrated foreign nationals without the permission of the originating agency.

Use : The information must not be released in any form to foreign governments. The control marking must carry over on all documents and publications in which the information is incorporated.

6. Any recipient agency or department desiring to use, quote, extract, summarize, disseminate or release a document marked with a control in a manner contrary to the limitation of that control marking, must obtain the permission of the originating agency. Permission from the originating agency to utilize, in whole or part, any intelligence or intelligence information in a manner other than specified by the control markings applies only to the specific purpose of the requester and does not automatically apply to all recipients of the information as originally disseminated, unless the originating agency removes the control markings for the benefit of all recipients.

7. Nothing in this Directive shall supersede or augment the requirements on the control, use and dissemination of Restricted Data, Formerly Restricted Data, or special intelligence projects made by or under existing statutes, directives and Presidential policy. The control markings and procedures set forth above will not apply to information originated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation as that Bureau has established controls over the dissemination and use of its information. Further, these markings do not supersede special indicators or project designators utilized by the various departments and agencies for established distribution of material.

8. This Directive does not abrogate the control markings applied to documents prior to 21 August 1962 under authority of DCID No. 11/2 (approved 11/15/54). These markings are: NOT RELEASABLE TO FOREIGN NATIONALS, NO DISSEM ABROAD, NSC PARTICIPATING AGENCIES ONLY, INTELL COMPONENTS ONLY, LIMITED, CONTINUED CONTROL AND BACKGROUND USE ONLY. Any question concerning these markings shall, in conformance with paragraph 6, be referred to the originating agency.

COMINT/OSR

MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHIEF, COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AND SECURITY DIVISION
DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SUBJECT: DoD Directive 5200.15, "Controlling the Dissemination and Use of Intelligence and Intelligence Information Produced by Members of the Intelligence Community"

A representative of the Oklahoma Publishing Company has requested that he be provided with a copy of DoD Directive 5200.15. This office is the nominal proponent of the Directive; however, the subject matter is under the cognizance of the Defense Intelligence Agency.

Although the Directive is marked, "For Official Use Only," it may be withheld from a requestor only if it qualifies under one or more of the express exemptions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 USC 552). These exemptions are set forth, with some amplification, in Section VIII of DoD Directive 5400.7, "Availability to the Public of Department of Defense Information."

In our view, none of the information contained in DoD Directive 5200.15 falls within any exemption which would permit the DoD to withhold release, and thus, the FOUO designation is without a legal basis and should be cancelled.

Please inform us whether you share our views on cancellation of the FOUO marking and release of the Directive. Should you object to cancellation of the marking and release, please provide us with your rationale.

In view of the limited time available for a final determination under the Freedom of Information Act, as implemented by Administrative Instruction No. 73, it would be appreciated if we could receive your reply on or before August 20, 1973.
